MILWAUKEE'S LARGEST RUMMAGE THIS WEEKEND AT WISCONSIN STATE FAIR PARK
Rummage-A-Rama! officially kicks off under new ownership

MILWAUKEE, WI – October 21, 2009 – Rummage-A-Rama! kicks off this weekend, October 24th from 9AM to 5PM, and 25th from 9AM to 4PM at the Wisconsin Products Pavilion at State Fair Park. Owner and promoter Tim Gill will hold a short press conference at 1PM this Friday, October 23rd at the Products Pavilion as vendor setup begins. Community leaders, media, and local business representatives are invited to attend.

Admission is $2 with a donation of two non-perishable food items for Hunger Task Force. Kids 12 and under are free. Adult admission without a food donation costs $4 “because we are really trying to encourage people to contribute to our efforts to help end hunger in Milwaukee,” Gill explains. “Last April we collected over 6,000 pounds of food for families in need. We want to double that.”

Hunger Task Force recently reported record demand for charitable food in the Milwaukee Area. “Our partnership with Hunger Task Force is very important to me because it’s important to our community,” Gill continues. “Our goal is not only to bring in several tons of food, but also to generate awareness of just how great the need is.”

In addition to working with Hunger Task Force, Gill has reached out to local businesses to gather gift card donations for an hourly raffle drawing. Patrons can explore the offerings of over 100 vendors including new and used household items, sporting goods, antiques, collectibles, craft items, jewelry, snacks, face painting, and more. “We’re at max capacity,” Gill says. “You’ll find twice as much as we had in April.”

Free parking is available in the North Lot by entering Gate 6 off 84th Street at The Pettit National Ice Center. Preferred parking is available within the park for a $5 fee by entering Gate 5 off 84th Street under the Ag Village Entrance.
