MILWAUKEE'S LARGEST RUMMAGE RETURNS TO THE WISCONSIN STATE FAIR PARK
Event to benefit Hunger Task Force and The Salvation Army

MILWAUKEE, WI – April 21, 2009 – The city's largest rummage sale will be revived this weekend, April 25th from 9AM to 6PM, and 26th from 9AM to 5PM at The Wisconsin State Fair Park. The Wisconsin Products Pavilion will house this bargain-hunter's market, with over 75 exhibitor booths as well as food and beverage concessions.

"In an uncertain economy, people are considering alternative sources for toys, clothing, and household items," says promoter Tim Gill. "And, let's face it, going to a giant rummage sale is just plain fun. You never know what you'll find!"

Patrons can benefit two important community services by attending Rummage-A-Rama and participating in the opportunity to receive FREE parking and admission to the event.

FREE parking is available in the Pettit Center Lot via Gate 6 with any household donation to The Salvation Army. A truck will be on-site to collect all contributions. Parking is available near the Wisconsin Products Pavilion for a $6 charge by entering through Gate 5.

Admission to Rummage-A-Rama is $4; however, patrons will receive FREE admission with a donation of four (4) non-perishable food items to Hunger Task Force of Milwaukee.

Gill is excited about his partnership with local community service organizations. "A lot of people are having a tough time making ends meet right now," Gill explains. "These services provided by The Salvation Army and Hunger Task Force help those people in their time of need, and we wanted to assist in those efforts."

Limited exhibitor space is still available for this weekend's Rummage-A-Rama. Interested parties may contact Tim Gill at 414-899-0893 or info@rummage-a-rama.com.
